VIDEO RELEASE
Understanding the judicial process as protesters move to trial

Mandan, N.D. – When mass arrests occur from unlawful protest activity, the Morton County Sheriff's Department works alongside the Morton County State's Attorneys to process each individual in a timely manner. In this "Know the Truth" video, Morton County Assistant State's Attorney Gabrielle Goter explains the judicial process that is involved with moving inmates from jail to an initial appearance in front of a judge in order to receive their bond requirements for release.
